Grain Notes.

Almost half the wheat, nearly 60 per cent of the corn and 17 per cent of the flour now going abroad from the United States are for Continental ports. The exports of oats from the United States in the week ending January 15, 1888, were 963,375 bushels, of barley 350,692 bushels, and of tye 481,615 bushels.

The total sample of the state States in the week ending January 13, 1828, were 963,337 bushels, of barley 360,692 bushels, and of rye 481,615 bushels.

The total supply of wheat and flour in the hands of miliers and consumers at Buda Pesth the latter part of December amounted to 5,280,006 bushels, against 19,-680,606 bushels the year before.

Central Missouri got the most of Sunday night's snow and rain. The precipitation was 80 of an inch here, 30 at St. Louis, It was only .94 at Springfield, .94 at Davenport, In.; 20 at Omona. Wichita got .58, Dedge City .08. There was no report from Concordia. North Platte reported .38. The temperature is barely freezing from Kansas City eastward, but much colder weather is predicted. The temperature is 14 at Dodge City, 10 at North Platte and 10 below zero in North Dakots.

Most of the big campaigners in the Chicago market talk dollar wheat—Kent, Linn, Cudahy, Brega, Grr, Mair and even Armour, says the Chicago Times-Heraid, But they are not inclined to "tall on," and so their operations are on a comparatively small scale. The scalpers and floor traders are bearishly inclined—Champlin-Rumsey aggressively so. The outsider for some mysterious reason is not an it at all. The foreigner is on the fence, the Englishman possibly a little buillish and the Continental trader a little bearish.

Car lot receipts of wheat:

rices influenced by the strength in wheat. May ranged between 23%c and 23%c, and closed a shade higher at 23%c 23%c.

After a rather easy opening provisions turned strong and remained so throughout. Scalpers were against the price early, but trade soon broadened out, outsiders commig into the market quite freely, and this wim good buying by local operators, advanced prices steadily. The close was 5 rong at allout top prices. May lard, 7%c higher at $4.5%.

End May ribs 7%c higher at $4.5%c.

Lots of the treasury girls at Washington are widows. Hundreds of them are old maids, and several thousand are sweet, marriageable girls, with pretty faces, good hearts, and a high grade of culture and education. Many of them have had governors and generals for fathers, not a few are the widows of noted soldiers and statesmen, and all are far above the average of their sex the United States over. Many have traveled widely.

Perhaps the prettiest bunch of cattle that has been here this week was brought in yesterday by Robert Enloc. Wabaunsee county, Kas. They were of his own feeding, grade Shorthorns and Herefords mixed—thirty-five royal bullocks, averaging 1.410 pounds. They were sold by Hopkins, Ketley & Co., at S, the top of the market. They were taken by Eastman for the export trade.

Among the receipts here yesterday were a number of pretty handsome cattle. C. Langvardt, Alta Vista, Kas., was on the yards with sixteen grade steers of his own feeding that averaged 1.33 pounds and were fleshy and highly finished, the fat evenly and well distributed. Wright & Hanga sold them at 15 ner cwt. the highest na sold them at $5 per cwt., the highest price of the day. A. Meyer took them on an Eastern order. While fewer cattle are being taken here for shipment back to the country still Kangas City continues to lead all other Western markets. The shipments of stockers and feeders from here to the country last week were 276 cars; from Chicago, 12d cars, and from Omaha, 103 cars.

Hogs are now selling 30/25c per cwt. year.

C. H. Turner, Agra, Kas., was here yesterday with some mules and horses. A. E. Armfield and L. G. Daniels, North Carolina, were here yesterday after mules.

B. F. Hatcher, an extensive cotton planter, of Columbus, Ga., was in the city yesterday after mules. He says the low price of cotton, 45-273-5c per pound, is having a telling effect on the horse and mule trade in his section, the planters buying just what they have to have.

Carved Leather.

Carved leather is now attracting much attention. The design is traced on dampened leather and worked out with small iron tools, being raised by striking with a heavy mallet. The leather in its natural tints is generally used, but it is sometimes dyed to imitate Russia, or in any desired color. Belts, chatelaine bags, fancy boxes, purses and travelling bags are ornamented in this manner. The work is of Mexican origin, the artisans of that country being adepts in this species of decoration.
